ing the aborigines, have been arrested while peaceably residing within the territory, and condemned to an infamous punishment, which they are now undergoing in a Georgia prison, for no other offence than a refusal to take an oath of allegiance to that State as a separate member of the confederacy.

Your memorialists further represent, that no steps have been taken by the Government of the United States to prevent these manifest violations its laws and its treaties, or to comply with its solemn guarantee: They would therefore, as citizens of the United States, and deeply interested in the character of their common country for humanity and good faith, respectfully, but earnestly, entreat your honorable bodies to adopt such measures in the case referred to, as shall enforce the observance of the laws of the Union, preserve inviolate the faith of treaties solemnly executed, vindicate the constitutional authority of the Federal Government, and secure our national character from lasting shame and reproach.

TRADE AND INTERCOURSE WITH THE INDIAN TRIBES.

LETTER

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF WAR,

Transmitting copies of accounts of the Expenditures for the benefit of the Indians, from the 1st August, 1830, to 31st October, 1831.

MARCH 23, 1832.

Read, and laid upon the table:

DEPARTMENT OF WAR,

March 22, 1832.

SIR: In conformity to the provisions of the act of Congress of the 6th May, 1822, entitled "An act to amend an act entitled an act to regulate trade and intercourse with the Indian tribes, and to preserve peace on the frontiers, approved March 30, 1802," I have the honor to transmit a report of the Second Auditor.

I have the honor to be,

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

LEW. CASS.

Hon. ANDREW STEVENSON,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

Second Auditor's Office, March 20, 1832.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit, herewith, duplicate copies of all such accounts as have been rendered to this office, by persons charged or entrusted with the disbursements or application of money, goods or effects for the benefit of the Indians, from the 1st October, 1830, to the 30th September, 1831, marked from No. 1 to 31, inclusive; together with a statement, marked A, containing a list of the names of all persons to whom goods, money, or effects, have been delivered within the said period, specifying the amount and object for which they were intended, the amount accounted for, and the balances under each specific head still remaining in their hands; prepared in obedience to an act of Congress of the 6th May, 1822, entitled "An act to amend an act entitled an act to regulate trade and intercourse with the Indian tribes, and to preserve peace on the frontiers," approved 30th March, 1802.

I am, very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

W. B. LEWIS.

The Hon. THE SECRETARY OF WAR.

SIR: In compliance with the resolution of the House of Representatives, of the 20th instant, directing the Secretary of War to communicate to that House "the expenses of the holding the treaty with the Chickasaw Indians at Franklin, in the months of August and September, 1830; that he distinguish, in said report, the amount paid by way of presents to the Indians; the names of the Indians paid in money or goods; and, if in goods, by whom furnished; the kind and quantity of goods, and the amount paid for the same by the United States, and by whom allowed: what amount was allowed for the board or rations, or supplies of provisions for the said Indians, at the treaty aforesaid; by whom the supplies were furnished, and the prices paid: what number of Indians were present at said treaty, and what length of time they remained on the ground:"

I have the honor to enclose a report of the Second Auditor, which furnishes the information required, except "the names of the Indians" to whom presents were made, which the vouchers do not show.

I have the honor to be,

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

LEWIS CASS,

Hon. ANDREW STEVENSON,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

Second Auditor's Office, March 23, 1832.
